Stingers

Women's hockey heads into final weekend

The Concordia Stingers women's hockey team plays its last two games of the regular season this weekend. The Stingers will host the McGill Martlets on Saturday at 6:15 p.m. and then welcome the Trois-Rivières Patriotes on Sunday at 2 p.m.

While the Stingers have clinched first place and will host the QSSF championship game on Sunday, Feb. 18 at 1:30 p.m., the Martlets and Patriotes are in an intense battle for second place and home-ice advantage for the QSSF semifinal.

"We can't take this weekend lightly," says Concordia head coach Les Lawton. "Both those teams will be going hard. There's a lot of pride at stake for us. Finishing in first place isn't good enough. We want to dominate our opponents and set the pace for the playoffs."

A good weekend will also help the Stingers pick up steam as they prepare for the CIAU Women's Ice Hockey Championships in Calgary Feb. 22-25. Concordia has clinched a berth in the nationals. As hosts, the Calgary Dinos are also assured of a spot. Four openings remain. The Canada West, Ontario and Atlantic champions will travel to Calgary. The final spot will be filled by a second Quebec team – both the Quebec champions and the finalists compete for the national title.

Concordia Athletes of the Week

Martine Dugrenier of the wrestling team and Real Kitieu of the men's basketball team have been named Concordia Stinger athletes of the week for the period ending Jan. 28.

Dugrenier, an exercise science major, won a gold medal in the 61-kilo class at the Western Open wrestling tournament Sunday. She defeated four opponents en route to the gold, including Helen Hennick, the 1999 CIAU national champion. The victory was one of the biggest of her young career, giving the Laval, Que., native a big boost heading into the AUS and CIAU championships in the coming weeks.

Kitieu, a centre, was instrumental in helping his team sweep two Quebec conference opponents last weekend. The Stingers downed the Laval Rouge et Or 68-65 on Friday. Kitieu had 14 points and seven rebounds. In Concordia's 79-58 win over the Bishop's Gaiters on Saturday, he was the Stingers' leading scorer with 18 points, 12 rebounds and six blocks. The native of Douala, Cameroon is a fourth-year economics major.
